The Greater Rockford Airport Authority (GRAA) is grateful that you have agreed to volunteer for our 3rd annual AirFest. The AirFest 2008 Committee appreciates your contribution to this regional air show by providing all volunteers with a three-day admission pass allowing you to come back and enjoy the show on a day that you are not volunteering. You will also receive a parking pass, a volunteer t-shirt, and concession tickets good for one meal for each four-hour shift worked. We appreciate your time and thank you for your support – without our volunteers, AirFest 2008 would not be possible!

The Chicago Rockford International Airport and UPS will be in operation during the hours of the show. Security and safety dictate care on the part of visitors, volunteers, and staff at all times on Airport property. Precautions against the heat and sun of summer are a must. We urge visitors and volunteers to wear light-color, loose-fitting, lightweight clothes with comfortable walking shoes with closed toes and thick soles to protect against injury and heat. Volunteers are urged to wear a hat, bandana or visor, use sun screen and drink lots of water. A continuous loop of AirFest grounds will be made to provide cold water to volunteers. If shade is not available and volunteers need to take a break, the Volunteer Tent is located at the main entrance.

We urge you to observe the same caution you would with summer tasks at home or on the job. You are responsible for your own actions. At the same time, if you observe any hazards, we urge you to report problems to an AirFest Committee member or GRAA employee who will be wearing red event t-shirts or polo shirts throughout the weekend.
